

Parking Guidelines

Developmental Research School
at the University of Florida

All P.K. Yonge parking areas and spaces require a PKY Parking Tag or a Visitor Pass. Tags must be displayed from the mirror and Visitor Passes must be displayed on the front dashboard. Vehicles must be parked in assigned areas and lots.

Consequences for violations are as follows:

- First Violation will receive a one-time warning notice, and student's also receive a discipline referral and parents are contacted;
- Second Violation will receive a $20 P.K. Yonge parking ticket.
- At three or more Violations the vehicle will be immobilized, i.e. booted, and will receive a $20 P.K. Yonge parking ticket. The vehicle will be released upon payment in full of all tickets, fines, a $20 boot removal fee, and cost to purchase a student parking tag if required.

PARENTS, and VISITORS (Parking Pass from the Main Office)

Lot B: Main entrance, front circle parking lot (near Performing Arts building)

- A P.K. Yonge Parking Pass is required and can be obtained from the Main Office (Note: Between 9:00 a.m. to 1:30 p.m. visitors and parents may temporarily park on the front circle to check in and receive a pass to park in the lot.)
- BABY GATOR has 5 reserved spaces marked by signs.
- NO Faculty, Staff or Student parking in this lot.

NOTE: No parking is permitted on yellow curbs in the front circle drive. This driveway is for drop-off, pickup and deliveries (UPS, FedEx, etc.)
